The Russian government is seeking a new loan of $350,000,000 in Germany.

President Roosevelt has requested that Secretary Cortelyou be elected to succeed the late Senator Hanna as his campaign manager.

Johnson county has reduced its wolf scalp bounty from $3.00 to $1.00.
The wolf business was growing too prosperous, and the court did not believe in protection anyhow.

The Good Roads Convention and the World's Fair Newspaper Parliament were in session in St. Louis this week. Press representatives from thirty-three foreign countries and from every state and territory in the union were present.

Mrs. John A. Logan, who has been chosen to succeed Clara Barton as president of the American Red Cross Society is a woman who, like Jesse Benton Fremont and a score of others, enjoys the reputation of greatness from having made her husband great.

W. E. Ewing, for ten years editor and proprietor of the Odessa Democrat has sold his paper to Walter L. Bales, formerly of the Hardin News. Mr.
Bales is an experienced newspaper man and he will no doubt continue in the success which the Democrat has enjoyed in past years.

Clara Barton has resigned the presidency of the American Red Cross Society and has been succeeded by Mrs. John A. Logan. Miss Barton is one of the most eminent women America has produced. She is known and honored abroad quite as much as at home. Indeed it would be improper to claim her as an American, for she belongs to the world.

The Indian Territory democrats in convention at Okmulgee, May 17, indorsed Senator Cockrell for democratic nominee for president. It is not at all likely that Senator Cockrell will have many instructed delegates at the St. Louis convention; but in the event of a deadlock and a bitter fight no man in the whole country would be so unobjectionable a compromise candidate as he.

The Southern Baptist convention which closed its annual session Monday in Nashville, selected Kansas City as the meeting place for next year.
The convention adopted a resolution advocating the passage by congress of the Hepburn-Dooliver anti-jug bill and also a resolution calling on the United States government to take all proper steps to stop alleged barbari-ties in the Congo Free State. A further resolution was adopted declaring against Baptist ministers performing the rites of matrimony where one or both of the contracting parties have been divorced on other than scriptural grounds.

Mr. Folk's nomination is now practically assured and his election almost equally so. The republicans have over done their advocacy of Mr. Folk and now many of the foremost ones are not willing to go back upon their former professions further than to vote against him. It is not likely that they will be able to induce any one of their strongest men to make the race. While Mr. Folk will undoubtedly lose some voters in counties where feeling has run too high and where party strife has been uncured, he will receive the votes of many who ordinarily do not vote at all. If he is elected, as now appears to be a matter beyond doubt, he will probably be elected by the usual majority.

Resolved, that the officers, members and visitors in attendance to the twenty-third convention appreciate the efforts of the mayor, the citizens, and the G. A. R. Post of this city, and especially to the commander of this post, for the entertainment and beautiful decorations which have been in evidence in Lexington during our pleasant stay. We hereby most sincerely express our thanks and heartly appreciation of the same, and especially do we thank the order of the Elks for the use of their beautiful and convenient hall, and to the janitor for his untiring efforts to make us comfortable, we extend thanks.

GENERAL OSTERHAUS.

The presence in this country of Gen. Peter J. Osterhaus, after an absence of 30 years, recalls vividly the achievements of a remarkable man.
An adopted son of the country, he fought in the war for the union on the union side with conspicuous valor and success, and was rewarded with promotion after promotion until he reached by his own unaided efforts the rank of major general. His services in every battle in which he participated were noteworthy, and stamped him as a soldier in every way worthy of his uniform. He has been spending his later years abroad, partly in the American consular service and partly in repose. His visit is for the purpose of meeting old friends, and their greetings must assure him of how warm a place he still holds in their hearts. He has found the republic neither ungrateful nor forgetful, and he bears his 81 years so well there seems good warrant for the hope that he may turn the century mark.

Gen. John C. Black of Illinois, Commander-in-chief of the G. A. R. of the United States, came Thursday morning to attend the remainder of the sessions of the State Encampment.
His headquarters were at the Nickell Home. Col. Van Horn also arrived Thursday and was the guest of Alexander Graves.

Captain and Mrs. Todhunter entertained at six o'clock dinner Thursday: Gen. John C. Black, commander-in-chief of G. A. R. and Col. McConnell, his adjutant, Gen. P. J. Osterhaus, and Major Leo Rasseuer, his adjutant, Past Department Commander T. B.
Rodgers, and Major Nesser, a member of General Black's staff.

At the table it was noted that by chance Gen Osterhaus was seated on the right and Gen. Black on the left of the host—the relative positions occupied by these gentlemen forty years ago on the less pleasant and less social occasion of the battle of Spanish Fort.

The various committees appointed in connection with the reception and entertainment of the G. A. R. discharged their duties in a most creditable manner. Many of our citizens gave up all other business and devoted themselves to the guests of the city.
Many of the houses and most of the business houses were decorated with bunting in honor of the occasion. The street decorations were highly creditable to the committee having the matter in charge, but owing to the torn up condition of the streets did not appear to advantage. Day's band and Concordia band were complimented on the part taken in the parades and such other occasions as they appeared in. The welcome given the G. A. R. was in every respect cordial, and seemed to be received in a spirit of lively appreciation.

Only a few of the G. A. R. visitors remained over Friday. The special train from St. Louis left about 11 o'clock Thursday night and the regular trains, both Thursday and Friday morning were crowded.

An Oklahoma Man.

Hon. C. Porter Johnson, who will deliver the annual address before the graduating class of Wentworth Military Academy this year, is an Oklahoma democrat. He was reared on a farm in Illinois, studied and practiced law in Chicago, and for several terms was elected state senator on the democratic ticket in a strong republican district.

He is reported to be an orator of great power. He was chosen by the legislature of his state to deliver the James G. Blaine memorial oration.
He was chosen to represent his state in an oration on "Illinois Day" at the Atlanta Exposition. He was chosen by the G. A. R. of Illinois to represent it at the National Encampment at Buffalo in an oration on the "Volunteer." He was chosen to deliver the memorial address in Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, in honor of Robert G. Ingersoll, a speech in which he stated in the opening sentence that he believed in the divinity of Jesus Christ, and that what he had to say of Ingersoll was tribute only to his high character as a man and a citizen. Mr. Johnson is one of the eminent men of Oklahoma. The people of Lexington will be glad to hear him.

Judge Smith Withdraws.

Judge Jackson L. Smith of the Kansas City Court of Appeals has withdrawn from the race for his present position. In his letter he says that he realizes that he cannot secure the nomination without an active personal canvass from now until the convention, and that he is unwilling to make this. Lafayette County had instructed for Judge Smith. Unless a new candidate appears in the field, Judge Timmonds of Lamar will be the nominee without opposition.

Annual Inspection.

Lieut. Col. Samuel W. Fountain, 4th Cavalry, U. S. A., stationed at Jefferson Barracks, arrived Monday morning to make the annual inspection of Wentworth Military Academy.
Such inspection is provided for by act of congress and applies to all military schools to which the United States government furnishes arms, ordnance, ammunition, and a detailed officer for instruction in military art and science. The inspection will begin at 2 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

A POSITIVE NECESSITY.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself. D. R. Byrnes, Lexington, at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, Mrs. Mary Sullivan Jenkins, wife of Bud Jenkins, aged 29 years.

The funeral services conducted by Rev. R. B. Briney occurred from the residence Monday morning. Interment in Macpeblah cemetery.

J. O. Kriehn, who have been visiting the family of C. H. Schaefermeyer, left Thursday morning for an extended visit to the principal Eastern cities and Europe.

Resolutions of Respect.

At our fourth annual meeting in Clayton Mo., the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect upon the death of our beloved brother, Geo. W. Marquis, of Lafayette County, and these resolutions were ordered read upon the minutes of this association and a copy forwarded to the widow of our beloved brother:

Be it resolved—That the All Wise Creator and preserver of the universe has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved brother, and since this association was founded by him and who was one always foremost in advocating the interests of our association

Be it resolved that this association hereby extends its heartfelt sympathy to afflicted family of our deceased brother.

Be it resolved—That this association deeply deplors the loss of our beloved brother and founder of our association and congratulate the Governor of Missouri on the wise choice he made in selecting the life companion of our brother who has stood by his side through all of his labors and shared in all of his joys and sorrows to take up the burdens of the office of assessor of Lafayette County.

Association.

Miss Mildred Stone to Wed.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Mildred Stone, daughter of Senator and Mrs. William Joel Stone, of Jefferson City, to Mr. John G. Parkinson of St. Joseph, has been received in Columbia. The wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian church in Jefferson City on June 1. Senator and Mrs. Stone and daughters are now at Atlantic City, where they will spend ten days or two weeks before returning to their home in Jefferson City, which is now regarded as the junior senator's legal residence. Mr. Parker was a member of the last house of representatives of Missouri, and one of the ablest young democrats on the floor.
He attracted attention every time he secured the floor, because of his vigorous methods in debate and his apparent earnestness. He was regarded highly as one of the "clean young men" on the democratic side, and he usually held his own in debate. Mr.
Parkinson was popular in Jefferson City last winter, and his may be one of the several romances developed during that session of the legislature, though the latest to be recorded.—Columbia Herald.

To Wed in June.

Cards of invitation have been issued to the wedding of Dr. J. Q. Chambers of Kansas City, and Miss Nellie N.
Pulliam of Boonville, at the Methodist church, Boonville, Wednesday afternoon, June 1st. This announcement will be of more than ordinary interest to the readers of the INTELLIGENCER.
Both bride and groom to be are well-known and widely connected in Lafayette county.

Miss Pulliam is a granddaughter of the late David Groves, and for several years with her aunt, Mrs.
Jane Groves Hopkins, made her home in Lexington.

Dr. Chambers is a son of the late Dr. P. C. Chambers, was reared in Lexington, and practiced medicine here until two years ago when he located in Kansas City.

Final Drills.

Company A, O. R. Spicknall Captain, won the banner of silk and gold in the competitive company drill on the parade grounds at W. M. A. Thursday morning. Lieutenant E. A. Hickman U. S. A. of Ft. Leavenworth and Wilburn Graves, of Pittsburg Kansas, Captain of Company B., of last year, were the judges.

In the afternoon were held the Battalion Drill, Review, Inspection, Dress Parade, and Salute of Flag. These formal drills were of the highest order and were alike creditable to the body of the cadets, the company officers and the commandant.

"The Runaway Wife", a four act comedy drama, exquisitely staged and handsomely produced, is the opening bill announced for Friday night at the New Grand, this being the first of two performances to be given by the Irving French Co., a high class popular priced attraction playing three night stands exclusively with change of bill nightly.

W. H. Graves of Pittsburg, Kansas who was one of the judges of the Competitive Drill at W. M. A. Thursday left for his home Friday morning. Mr. Graves was a student at W. M. A. for three years.

APPLES AS MORAL AGENTS.

They Tend to Keep Their Consumers from Indulging in Many Evil Habits.

Scarcely too much can the apple be extolled since it has been almost entirely the creation of man. Starting with the crab apple of Europe, man has produced a fruit that has no comparison with its original. Nature could only furnish the germinal and is not given to making improvements, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. When Superintendent Stimson of the pomology department of the world's fair says:
"There is no doubt that apples are a cure for the drink habit, the tobacco habit, the 'Indian' habit and many others that may be called objectionable," we appreciate deeply what the apple has done for man and still more deeply what man has done for the apple.
Prof. Stimson adds: "Apples elevate the morals of persons who eat them and if the United States were a great apple-eating country we would have less crime and fewer woes. When you want to smoke eat an apple and you will find the desire in a measure satisfied. Do the same if you want a drink."

It will be seen that the apple is the enemy of the saloon and of the vice of smoking. The moral effect of apples has been too much neglected. We have tried to reform entirely with the gospel and moral suasion. Had we gone into the haunts and hotbeds of vice and crime with an apple in one hand and the Bible in the other we might have had better success.

Mr. Stimson says that apples are good for the "Indian" habit. This is something that has never been tried in all the efforts to reform St. Louis politics. The "Indians" have not had apples enough.
Bar's have been opened in plenty, but not apple bar's. Clayton conventions would be impossible on a diet of apples. Hereafter the sturdy farmer should go to his convention with a dozen apples in one pocket—and a well-oiled .44 in the other.

WAR CHESTS OF EUROPE.

Large Sums of Money Kept Constantly on Hand to Uphold National Power.

In a financial as well as a military sense Germany is probably best prepared for war. A special war treasure of $30,000,000 in coined gold is always kept at Spandau. France and England are both richer, however, than Germany, and their war chests are well lined with gold. Their people are also better able to put their hands in their pockets in an emergency than the Germans. Heavily taxed as France is, it is estimated that her taxpayers could meet a demand of fifty millions more for the war chest under a sounder financial system and administration.

Two years ago Russia's war chest was practically empty. In fact, instead of having savings in her box, Prof. Geffcken, who is an authority, says she is always borrowing money in times of peace.
France has lent the most money to Russia, the debt in that quarter being not less than five milliards of francs. Of the important states, Italy is the worst off, her people being taxed to the verge of starvation to keep a comparatively small sum in the war money box. Even salt is so taxed that the poor can afford at present only half as much salt as in 1871. The army has swallowed up all the savings of the country and more.
Germany's full money box would certainly make it possible for her to take the field of war more quickly than any other power. She prides herself upon a war force of 2,549,918 men, which could take the field within ten days after order, and, backed by the war chest with its six millions sterling, this would be a formidable showing.
